

Resumé of David A. Cheslow, Ph.D.

BOX 190

SATURNA ISLAND, BC V0N 2Y0

CANADA

david@cheslow.net

(250) 539-3703

Education

Dec 1995

Conferred Doctorate of Philosophy in Business Analysis and Research at Texas A&M University, emphasizing management information systems and computer science; grade point average 3.83. Dissertation in the area of natural language, artificial intelligence tools for group decision making.

Aug 1984

Conferred Masters of Business Administration from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, emphasizing management and management science; grade point average 3.4.

Jul 1982

Conferred Bachelor of Science from Radford University, majoring in Business Administration; grade point average 3.02.

Experience

Jan 2006 to date

Independent Software Designer, Saturna Island, BC. <http://www.saturnasoftware.com> Contact me for references.

Jun 2004 to Jan 2006

Intentionally not employed while waiting for Canadian permanent resident status/work permit.

Aug 2002 to May 2004

Contract Web Designer for ICONS Inc. of Roanoke, VA. Duties included meeting with clients, establishing website specifications, database design, software prototyping, programming, testing.

Mar 1998 to Aug 2002

Technology Consultant for Atlantic Mutual Companies of Roanoke, VA. Duties included coordination and delivery of developer and hardware technician training, internship ambassador, software standards, project management, object oriented evangelist.

Jan 1995 to Mar 1998

Vice President of Development for Milagro Systems, Inc. of Austin, TX. Duties included software design, software testing, programming, supervision of contract and in-house programmers.

Jan 1995 to Dec 1996

Independent Software Consultant, Dogwood Hollow Software Systems of Willis, VA. Contracts included software patent expert witness, custom software development for UNIX, DOS and Windows computer platforms.

Resumé of David A. Cheslow, Ph.D. / david@cheslow.net / (250) 539-3703

Sep 1992 to Jan 1995

Assistant Professor for the University of Michigan at Flint. Duties included development and instruction of undergraduate and graduate curricula in information systems, scholarly research in the field of information systems, and service to the University and community.

Aug 1988 to Aug 1992

Graduate Teaching Assistant for Texas A&M University. Duties included development and instruction of undergraduate courses in information systems.

May 1990

Training Consultant for Group Technologies Corporation of Austin, TX. Duties included development of hands-on, interactive tutorial for a group decision support system; instruction of corporate representatives in the use of group decision support systems.

Aug 1985 to Jul 1988

Planning Research Economist for the Virginia Department of Taxation. Duties included research and development of econometric models for corporate income and other tax sources, preparation of revenue impact statements and forecasts for proposed legislation, development of computer programs and implementation of office automation, presentation of findings to State officials, training of personnel in the use of microcomputers and software, hardware and software troubleshooting.

Mar 1983 to Jun 1984

Research Assistant for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. Duties included project management of small business database creation, statistical analysis of University employee database, research in the area of organizational behavior and theory.

Experience developing software in the following programming languages: APL, C, C++, CSS, Coldfusion, Fortran, HTML, Java, JavaScript, LISP, Objective C, Prolog, SQL, Visual Basic, VB.net, (X)HTML, XML.

Available to Canadian or United States employers.

Revised 31 Jul 2006